BBA Announces 2008 National mathematics scholarship

The William Greer scholarship program for 2008 aims to support students interested in mathematics

October 1, 2007: The Benjamin Banneker Association recently announced the opening of the William Greer Scholarship Program for 2008. The scholarship, offered by Holt, Rinehart, and Winston (HRW), in partnership with the Benjamin Banneker Association, gives opportunity to students in grades 6-12 to apply for a $5,000 scholarship to pursue a career in elementary education, or middle school or high school mathematics. The scholarship is awarded for full-time undergraduate study at an accredited college, university or community college. The scholarship is awarded on the basis of economic condition, academic record, and completion of high school requirements. The student will be chosen from grades 6-12. The deadline for application is December 31, 2007. Applications should be mailed to the Benjamin Banneker Association, Inc. P.O. Box 390 Oak Park, Illinois 60301-1286 c/o Executive Director, Dr. Anthony Scott. Email inquiries should be emailed to director@bannekermath.org.
